Potential Employers to Consider that are felon friendly

Updated on 5/1/25

Retail: Lowes, Ashley Furniture, Dollar Tree, PetSmart, Walgreens, Kohl's, Goodwill, Sam's Club, Target, Walmart, etc.

Food Service: Dairy Queen, Captain D's, Domino's, IHOP, McDonalds, Subway, Buffalo Wing Wings, Wendy's, etc.

FEDCAP Tennessee helps working-age individuals who are not currently employed in overcoming employment barriers: disabilities or health concerns, substance abuse recovery or history, criminal justice involvement, and vocational challenges. Please contact them by calling (615) 815-4164 or emailing them at contactEAEI@fedcap.org for more information.

Express Employment, Nexstaff, Focus Workforce, and Labor Finders state they are also felon friendly.

Common Opportunities for Felons:

Truck drivers: As a truck driver you would likely be working by yourself most of the time and hence most trucking companies are felon friendly by nature.

Restaurants Servers: Many restaurants do not perform background checks on their serving staff and they can be a good place to gain employment.

Work at startup: A new company looking to attract people may skip background checks, which presents a good opportunity for you if you have a college degree and are a good fit for the company.

Plumbing, Home inspector and Handyman: These may be good options if your state either does not require a license for these roles or does not bar people with a felony on record from choosing these careers.

For more felon friendly employment opportunities, please go to Indeed.com or ZipRecruiter.com and search for jobs using the term "felon friendly".
